

Reginald Belon
Public Affairs Specialist
FHLBank Pittsburgh

Reginald Belon is a Public Affairs Specialist at the Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh (FHLBank). Mr. Belon joined FHLBank in 2024 and executes the grassroots strategy through FHLBank's Public Policy Network (PPN). He works within FHLBank's district to bridge the gap between lawmakers and local industry stakeholders.

Mr. Belon brings nearly a decade of experience across Congressional and government agencies. Most recently, he served as an Advisor in the Office of The Under Secretary at the Minority Business Development Agency of the U.S. Department of Commerce. Throughout these roles, he has executed strategies to educate and build relationships with stakeholders in alignment with targeted the organization's policy goals. He is experienced in communicating policy priorities to diverse audiences, especially through impactful events.

Mr. Belon earned a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from The City University of New York at Queens College with a concentration in Law and Politics.